

10:55 A.M. – CALL TO ORDER

Dedication:

On this Remembrance Day, we come O Lord, in gratitude for all who have died that we might live, for all who endured pain that we might know joy, for all who suffered imprisonment that we might know freedom. Turn our deep feeling now into determination, and our determination into deeds, that as people died for peace, we may live in peace for the sake of the Prince of Peace

ACT of REMEMBRANCE

They shall not grow old as we that are left grow old.
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,

We will remember them

(together) We will remember them

HONOUR ROLL

We remember with gratitude those who gave their lives for the cause of freedom. Grant, O Lord, unto all of us for whom they died that their devotion may bring fruit in us in more abundant love for others.

We remember before You all those from this community who made the Supreme Sacrifice in the Great War: 1914-1918.

We remember before You all those who made the Supreme Sacrifice in the Second War: 1939-1945

As well we remember those who made the Supreme Sacrifice in the Korean War.

We remember those of our armed forces who made the supreme sacrifice in Afghanistan.

We also remember our armed forces involved in peace keeping throughout the world.

Finally, we remember all those who have returned from the wars and are now deceased.

PRAYER

Eternal God, we thank you for this land of ours and for the high price paid to keep her free. We remember those who laid down their lives in a spirit of unselfish service. Be with us, Lord, as we pledge ourselves anew to your service in gratitude and in pride for those who gave the last full measure of devotion to make Canada what it is - a place where the strong stoop to help the old and the weak, where we encourage our children and young people in worthy accomplishment, where we stand to guard the rights of all citizens against tyranny and oppression.

Prayer... cont'd

We bless you Lord, that for our comrades fallen, the tribulations of this world are ended, and death is past. We pray that in your mercy you will bring us all into the joy of your perfect kingdom, a house not made with humble hands, but eternal in the heavens as we soldier on in the faith and loyalty of our Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen.

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

O GOD OUR HELP IN AGES PAST

Oh God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

Under the shadow of Thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is Thine Arm alone,
And our defense is sure.

Time like and ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
they die forgotten as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hopes for years to come,
Be thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home.

BENEDICTION

God grant to the living, grace;
To the departed, rest;
To the Church, the King,
the Commonwealth, and all humankind,
peace and concord;
and to us all His servants, life everlasting;
and the blessing of God Almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be with you and abide with you always.
